

Losing a loved one to drug overdose can make you feel alone and in pain.

Maybe you are thinking no one could possibly understand how you feel.

You are not alone!

Have You Lost a Loved One to Drug Overdose?

There were more than 400 overdose deaths in Maine in 2017.

Please join us for this offering supporting those who have lost a loved one to drug overdose.

- Non-judgmental
- Safe
- Connection
- Support
- Confidential
- Share difficult emotions

Mondays, 5:00 - 6:30 p.m., Sept 10 - Oct. 15
Frenchman Bay Library, Sullivan

Hospice Volunteers of Hancock County
14 McKenzie Avenue
Ellsworth, ME 04605
207-667-2531
www.hospiceofhancock.org

For more information or to register, please call Janice Ronco, Bereavement
Services Coordinator, 207-667-2531, or email
jronco@hospiceofhancock.org.